Mr. Newton contends that he paid Mr. Sandford (who owns the piers each side of the bulkhead) for the wharfage. Verdict for defendant.

COURT OF SESSIONS .- Before the Recorder and udge Lynch.

TRIAL FOR FALSE PRETENCES .- John W. Welling was put upon his trial on an indictment for false pretence, charging him with baving, on the 25th of March, 1840, obtained about $644 worth of cloths, cassimeres, &c. from Messrs. Samuel M. Blatchford & Sampson, merchants, corner of Maiden Lane and William-street, by false and fraudulent representations and pretences. The District Attorney, J. R. Whiting, Esq., in his opening, stated to the jury that the accused resided at Newburg, Orange County; and that in order to procure the above credit, he stated that he owned the house he occupied at Newburg, and was worth at the time about $10,000 over and above his debts. Mr. Blatchford deposed that the accused had had dealing with him individually, of rather small amounts, for some two or three years, and owed witness, prior to the formation of the firm of Blatchford & Sampson, $300 to $400; that he had been slow of payment; and when he came to purchase goods of the firm, witness asked him if he owned the house he lived in at Newburg, to which he replied that he did, and went on to state that he was worth about $10,000 over and above his debts, and in what his property consisted. Witness said that but for this representation, he would not have sold him a single dollar's worth on credit; but fully confiding in Mr. Welling's statement, he ordered his clerk to let him have what goods he wanted on credit, and he then bought the bill of $644. That on the 23d September, 1840, he contracted another debt for goods of $610 22 in amount; and on the 24th October, same year, still another bill for $459 74. That the notes given for these debts having been protested for non-payment, witness went to Newburg, and not being able to find Mr. Welling, and ascertaining that he did not own a house there, preferred his complaint there before a magistrate for the false pretence. In his cross-examination, Mr. Blatchford said the firm of Blatchford & Sampson failed and dissolved in June 1842, but that witness had not failed individually, and was still carrying on business in his own name; that since the contracting of the debts to the late firm of Blatchford & Sampson, the accused had paid witness $427.72 on the old individual account of witness. The receipt for this amount, however, was signed by the firm of Blatchford & Sampson, the witness stating that he had transferred his own debt against the accused to the books of the firm. Witness was induced to trust the accused in the first place because h was recommended to him as trustworthy by a house in this city. Witness thinks the accused told him that he had been offered $5,000 or $6,000 for the house he lived in, and that he owned it; that he owned a farm in connection with his father-in-law-witness thinks in Pennsylvania. (This he had spoken of before the alleged false pretence.) He also spoke of having purchased village lots in Newburg. Witness usually gave six months' credit.

Moses H. Nichols was then called; but before his crossexamination was concluded, the Court adjourned to Thurs day, 11 A. M.

BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA:

New-York, Oct. 29, 1842.

Mr. C. C. Bristol—Sir: The motive that prompts me to address these lines to you, arises from a conviction paramount to that of mere praise of your valuable Sarsaparillo, for if that was my desire I should fail in the attempt, for if eled as though it would require a more powerful pen that mine to do justice to the high claims of so valuable a medieine as Bristol's Sarsapatilla.

It is the obligation I owe as one of the vast family of man to those, like myself, whose misfortune it has been to be afflicted as I have been for several years past, that indu be afflicted as I have been for several years past, that indu-ces me, without solicitation, to make known to the world what has been an effectual remedy when and where the hope of a cure was almost extinct.

I had been informed that you were to visit this city this fall, when I expected to have the pleasure of stating to you what your Sarsaparilla has done for me, but in this I was disappointed, you having left the city before I knew it; I have therefore taken this method to inform you, and through page therefore taken this method to morn you, and activity you, all who may desire to know what my afflictions were and also what has proved an antidote to the same.

I was attacked with Scrofula in a very alarcoing form about five years since, which spread rapidly throughout my head, face and throat, internal and external; there were several holes in the roof of my mouth and about the palate which was nearly destroyed—my speech and hearing so much affected as to leave but little hope that those senses would ever return to me again as they now are. On of my ears was partly destroyed, my nose and the greate

My feet were greatly extended in size from what was called Dropsy, and in addition to this, for many years I was afficted with Piles in their most severe and distressing form, which is now removed, together with most of my great affictions, through the use of your Sarsaparilla alone, after having the best medical treatment the city afforded.

Lam now nearly well—my face has been saved, my mouth naving the best medical treatment the city afforded.

I am now bearly well—my face has been saved, my mouth and throat heated, my speech and hearing restored, my sight improved, which was very doubtful, my sleep become natural and my appetite good; in a word, I am a different person in feeling and appearance, and there remains not a doubt but that Bristol's Sarsaparilla will effectually accom-plish a thorough and lasting cure of all my afflictions.

push a thorough and lasting cure of all my affictions.

I am at a loss for language and terms strong enough to speak of your Sarsaparilla as it deserves. It has been to me every thing—to it I owe the preservation of my life under the direction of a wise Providence, and were I capable. Lyouth preclaim is all the model, the Walcale Sarvey. I would proclaim to all the world what Bristol's Sarsapa ritla has done for she. It will afford me pleasure at any time to informany person who may desire to know any thing I know of Bristol Sarsaparilla.

I called at the office of the Sun paper this after noon and requested the publication of the above letter to one week, and was refused by the person in charge of the office, who stated that the letter could not be published in the Sun, as others had the preference in such advertisements. I enquired the cause of so strange treatment, I having been a subscriber for the Sun from the first number to the present time; believing, as I did, that I was entitled to the same privilege with others in giving publicity to that which I considered to be my dutyto the community, as well as of great importance to the affilicted, that they might know what to apply as a safe and sure remedy. But I was a safe that they have been could not so in the Sun at any rate. told that my letter could not go in the Sn. at any rate. IJ Spencer announces to gentlemen that his arrangements are now completed for supplying according to previous intimation, A FINE FUR HAT at a price (83 25) which shall render it emphatically the cheapest as well as lowest priced Gentlemen's Fur Hat ever on sale in this city. It is prepared in the same style which characterizes our finest article, and like that article is offered at a price at which it cannot be continued without an unusually rapid sale. The undersigned with all confidence affirms it to be for the gentleman and economist the most desirable Fur Hat yet offered. (020u) SPENCER, 245 Broadway.

Torlando Fish, Fashionable Hatter, 137 Broad way, would inform the gentlemen of New-York that his Fall and Winter style of Hats is now ready for their inspection and critical judgement. Claiming the distinction of having been the first to project and abide by a strictly AMRRICAN style of Hats, instead of servilely copying the Fashions of Europe, which are often unsuited to our climate and manners, he rejoices to perceive that others have seen fit to follow his lead, and that now the following of European Fashions in Hats is almost entirely abandoned by the leading manufacturers, He offers a Winter style of Gentlemen's Nutria Hats at $2: 50, and warrants them equal in material, finish, fashion and durability to any Hat sold as low as $4 in the city. But he wishes it distinctly understood that his best Hats are not sold at this price, but at $4.50. These he recommends as equal to any hat sold in New-York at $5 or under, and challenges for them a comparison with any other.

Gentlemen visiting our city are respectfully invited to call and examine his new stock of Winter hats and judge of their quality. He is confident that, whether the chapter or the best Hat is desired, the inquirer will here be satisfied.

heir inspection. In strict accordance with the true principles of economy the subscriber has introduced for the economist a beautiful, fine finished, Fur Hat at the low price of $1, which he unhesitatingly affirms is equal to those soldfit more expensive parts of the city at $4.50 and $5. Persons who have been in the habit of paying the latter prices for their Hats can now furnish themselves with an article equal in every respect for the sum of four dollars. To those who wish a low priced Hint he offers a fine, finished, substantial article of Fur Hats at $3, equal to those sold for $3.50, or even the

His newest style is particularly becoming and unique, an improvement to be found in Hats of his manufacture only. It consists in a graceful curve and set of the brim, than which nothing more beautiful or expressive has been hitherto seen, and which none can fail to admire. This fashion is the result not of mere experiment, but of elaborate study he besitates not to assert, that in style and in retaining the set of the Rat, (that most desirable quality,) his Establish ment stands unrivalled. Dear Sir: For the advantage of all who wish to find a medicine that can be relied upon for the cure of Rheumatism, I would state that Dr. Henry's Rheumatic Syrup has cured me after every other medicine had failed. I had been afflicted with the Rheumatism in my feet and ancies for the space of six months, so that I could not walk across the floor without suffering the most execuciating agony. I made use of every remedy which I could hear of independent of my physicians prescriptions, without avail. I continued to graw worse, it extneded itself through my whole system, every joint was affected so that I could not rest at night. Having read in the newspapers of the cores performed by the use of your specific, my husband procured a bottle for me, and before I had made use of half of it, I found myself greatly benefited, and by continuing the use of it I amcom-pletely cured.
